Where do I find costume information?

Parent Portal -> Info -> Bulletin Board. LCDC provides the main costume, you may need to provide proper shoes/tights/leotard.

Where do I buy shoes, tights and leotards?

LCDC has pink, black and nude leotards for sale at the studio. Tights are for sale as well. If you are looking for shoes, we recommend discountdance.com or a local store, Penny-Robin.

Do they wear makeup?

Wearing makeup is totally up to the dancer's grown up. The lights are bright, so if your dancer is comfortable, a little blush and lipstick can go a long way! We are also taking photographs of the dances and filming. Their sweet faces will show up better if they have a bit of makeup on.

Hair?

Most dances we ask that their hair is neatly pulled away from their face. Hairspray for wispies is highly recommended! Explore Ballet dancers will do a high bun.

Is there a dress rehearsal for Holiday Revue at the theater?

No. Dancers need to arrive at 10:00 with their hair and makeup done, wearing any tights or leotards needed.

How do I retrieve my dancer after the performance?

We will be sending your dancer backstage to change back into their normal clothes. Then they will return to the stage. Please have one grown up come to the stage to retrieve them. Then go shower them with flowers and love!

You don't let me take photos or videos. Where can I buy them?

You can purchase photo and video packages in the Online Store in the Portal. The photos and video will be virtual and you will get a link to both. Here are your options:

Holiday Revue video- $20

What dance/scene/act is my dancer in?

Please see the cast list HERE. You will find your dancer's class, then see what their scene/dance is called and what act it is in!

I heard there were extra rehearsals. Who? What? Where?

The Nutcracker is made up of a lot of production dances. This means that several classes will be dancing together on stage at the same time. It is very important these classes meet prior to dress rehearsals to run through their dances. Here is the Extra Rehearsals Schedule. These ALL take place at the studio!

Do they wear makeup?

Yes! Makeup instructions are listed on the Bulletin Board in your Parent Portal. The stage lights are very bright and will wash out the dancer's faces. Stage makeup is heavier than normal everyday makeup, so please keep that in mind.

Hair?

Hair for the Nutcracker is a high bun. If your dancer's hair does not fit into a high bun, please pull it back neatly and securely off the face. Hairspray is your best friend!

Is there a dress rehearsal at the theater?

YES! The dress rehearsal schedule for your dancer is here. They need to arrive 20-30 minutes prior to their time on stage listed to get into costume. They should arrive to the theater with hair and makeup completed.

My kid has a long time in between rehearsals at the theater. Can they hang out there?

YES!! We will have a lot of staff and volunteers around to watch after them. Please send them with snacks, food and water. No NUT products please. We will have some concessions available to purchase.

Can my dancer leave after they perform?

For dress rehearsal- yes, your dancer can leave once their rehearsal time is over.

For the shows on Dec. 7 and 8- No. We do a full cast bow and picture at the end of each show.

They also MUST attend both performances.
